IVY CITY RACE TRACE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—The racing is being continued today, with the most delightful weather of the meeting. The air is warm and balmy and overcoats are at a discount. In fact, the eather is so lovely that there is already some talk of continuing the meeting for a few days next week. The track is in fine condition, and with the favorite, Choctaw, winning the first race, ridden by Garrison, the sport began with something like a hurrah, which broke out in wild enthusiasm after the second race, when McLaughlin landed Favor a winner over the favorites, Dunboyne and

The third race, a handicap for all ages at three-quarters of a mile, was also a triumph three-quarters of a mile, was also a triumph for McLaughlin, he winning easily with the two-year-old King Crab, who not only started favorite but gave weight to all the others in the race. The fourth race was a complete upset for all. It was a dash of a mile, with selling allowances, and it was won by Gov. Bowie's Vosburg, his first win here or at Baltimore. The steeplechase was won by Will Davis, who had just been given to his rider, Charley Post, by Father-in-law Bill Daly, with the two-year-old Palatka. Post married Daly's daughter about a month ago, and this is his first win since.

since.

The day's racing was to have been made and day's racing was to have been made more interesting with a match at five fur-longs between Green Morris's Armstrong and P. H. Ryan's Freedom for $500 a side. But owing to a misunderstanding the race did not take place, and Morris waived his claim to the $250 forfeit.

In the stretch Blessed made a rush for the lead, followed by Patroeles, and they made the race a good one to the last furlong, when Choctaw came through, winning by five lengths from Patroeles, closely followed by Blessed, Rowland and Pericles. ANARCHISTS WHO DECLARS HE WILL NEVER BE HANGED.

Ex-Gov. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, Thinks That Justice Has Been Done and Can See No Sense in all the Talk About the Inhumanity of Hanging Men Who Are Convicted Murderers-Auxiety in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 .- A rumor was current last night that Spies, the Anarchist, had determined to commit suicide rather than die on the scaffold. There are Anarchists in Chicago who declare that Spies will never be hanged. They agree no earthly power can avail, but stoutly maintain that their leader will cheat the gallows.

The intelligence has been communicated to the proper authorities, who may be able to thwart any suicidal attempt which Spies may make. Under existing regulations it would be an easy matter to convey to the doomed seven men enough poison to kill seventy men. Ex-Gov. of Illinois John M. Palmer, who is in the city on business, said to an Evening World reporter this morning that the Burreme Court decision in the Anarchist case met his perfect approval. "Judge Magruder's opinion in the Illinois Supreme Court," he said, went right to the root of the whole argument in sustaining the constitution of the jury, and the United States Supreme Court's approval. in sustaining the constitution of the jury, and the United States Supreme Court's approval should convince every fair minded man that justice has been done. As far as the idea of its being inhuman to hang these men. I can see no sense in that. They killed several policeman—did they not? and wounded many more. Was that humanity? The talk about Gov. Oglesby being influenced by these appeals on the ground of harmony and mercy, I don't believe it.

on the ground of harmony and mercy, I don't believe it.

"Gov. Oglesby is a man of courage and always upon the side of law and right, and he is not going to be persuaded from his duty by any personal consideration whatever. The highest courts in the land have decreed this verdict a just one, and Gov. Oglesby is not going to be swayed in his manifest duty by any trifling consideration. I do not say this by any authority from him, but simply from what I know of him as a man."

cers at police headquarters for the past four days have been scouring the city, in vain attempt to find a clue to his whereabouts. Saturday morning he left home as usual and attended business as late as 4 o'clock. Then he was seen at the office, and, with a single exception, nothing has been seen or heard from him.

At 4 o'clock that day, H. C. Smith, who has a desk-room in Bird's office, talked with him at the latter place, and engaged for a meeting half an hour later. Mr. Smith was called away directly afterward and when he returned Mr. Bird was gone. Friends of the missing man say that at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon he was seen standing at the corner of West and Murray streets, evidently waiting for some one and deep in thought.

Mr. Schmidt accused Charles Tyler, a colored waiter on a Pennsylvahia Railroad dining-room car, of knowing something about the disappearance of his daughter. Tyler had lodged for some time at Schmidt's place and had met Stena frequently. He left the house on the evening preceding Stena's flight.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.-The announcement hat Paul Hines would not play in Washingon next season has made him a much-sought after man. Indianapolis and Pittsburg have been after him, and the latter has offered $2,500 for Paul's release. This brings a new purchaser into the field, who is prepared to pay more than the Pittsburg people. Hines would undoubtedly prefer to go to Boston rather than to Pittsburg, and would receive a larger salary there than he could receive elsewhere.

THE BOODLERS ALREADY SEE THE HAND-WRITING ON THE WALL.

Phousands of Democrats Showing Their Resentment at the Police Justices' Methods-Ne Labor Votes for the Hot Springs Candidate-Many Offers to Help in the Nicoli Campaign Already Received.

HERE is no doubt about it. The citizens of this town are thoroughly aroused, and are determined to stamp with their approval the proposition of the Cooper Union Independent meeting to promote De Lancey Nicoll to the place of Prosecutor-in-Chief of the boodlers. Democrats by the thousand are showing their resentment at boss die tation, and Republicans are smiling at the shrewdness of their local leaders in so quickly responding to the call of the people for the nomination of Mr. Nicoll. At the headquarters of the Committee of One Hundred busimen of all parties, in the Hotel Bartholdi. there are all the symptoms of happiness. while Boss Power and his friends wear a took

At the Hoffman House there is much con-At the Hoffman House there is much consultation of the leaders, who wear serious faces, and at the headquarters of the United Labor party there is nothing which might be considered even a straw for the followers of of the Police Justices' ring. For the Labor men see in the error of the bosses their opportunity. They say that last year they beat the Republicans by a handsome majority, and by hard work they may elect their ticket this year. At any rate, there will be no defection to the Hot Springs candidate.

The Labor men say that the contest is simply between Post and Nicoll and that Tweed's friend is fully out of the fight. They have nothing to say against Mr. Nicoll. Indeed, who has? But they say they believe there is a working chance for Post. They base this belief on the theory that in spite of the abuse which Col. Fellows has never failed to heap upon Tammany Hall Democrats, and in spite of his vilification of John Kelly, the stanch old straight-outs of the wigwam will bend the knee to their County Democratic bosses and submit to being once more trodden under foot by the latter.

But at the headquarters of the Martine and Nicoll Business Men's Committee may be seen any day just now signs that there will be a defection from both Tammany and the Counties of thousands of Democrats who are not led by a string, who vote on principles, and whose only law of political guidance is that which demands the best men in office. There are about four hundred visitors at the big headquarters daily, and letters offering assistance and inclosing money are received by every mail delivery. PELSOWS OUT OF THE BACE.

Nearly all of the callers are Democrats who will not submit to boss dictation. It is essentially their canvass. Republicans will vote for Nicoll as the unexceptional candidate of their party, Independent Democrats have no other centre, and hosts of them crats have no other centre, and hosts of them are declaring themselves.

Among the letters opened this morning are proffers of assistance from George H. Starr, lawyer at 4 and 6 Warren street; Henry M. Gescheidt, 38 Park row; George Baker, of Baker & Baker, 181 Broadway; Capt. William Fowler for his firm, 37 John street; C. T. Kline, John Sidell, of the Volunteer Firemen's Association, which is alteer Firemen's Association, which is almost unanimous for Nicoll: Orlando B. Potter, F. E. Bean, ice-dealer, at 334 West Seventeenth street, who says nearly all of his one hundred employees will vote for the bold prosecutor of Jaehne, McQuade, O'Neill, Oleary and Sharp; John S. Eldridge and E. R. Johnes, of Johnes, Benner & Willcox, of 44 Broadway, who speaks for the firm.

VOLUNTEERS AT THE POLLS. Nearly enough volunteers have come forward, offering their services for the distribution of tickets at the polling places. In fact, although the canvass for Mr. Nicoli is in the hands of men who have been so closely identified with their business that they are only amateurs at the political machinery, there is so much earnestness and determination among Nicoli's supporters that they will win against the trained men of the bosses by the very force of their numbers and patriotic enthusiasm.

The Nicoli nickel button turns up in un-very force of their numbers and patriotic enthusiasm.

The Nicoli nickel button turns up in unexpected places. It is seen on about every other coat lapel met on the street, and it is worn by thousands of Democrats, not Democratic politicians, but that class of Democrats who make up the bulk of the great Democratic majorities in this city. The politicians—men who have made their living all their lives out of the people of New York, are easily whipped into line for Fellows, who was given an office the day he set foot in New York and has enjoyed public pap ever since, or nearly twenty years. They are fearful that Boss Power's candidate. But the rank and file of Democracy; honest men who ask no party favor, and who vote for honest men and honest principles, wear the shining nickel button.

was narrowed down to one between the United Labor and the Progressive Labor parties by the withdrawal of their claims by the Irving Hall party.

Hugo Vogt was called to the stand for cross-examination and acknowledged that the bill for the additional inspector off election had been framed by all the members of the United Labor party at the time, which was before the expulsion of the Socialists and the Progressive secession.

Mr. Vogt personally opposed the petition to the Legislature and the Governor asking for the passage of the bill, because he did not think it the proper thing for the United Labor party to ask favors of a Legislature and a Governor of other parties.

Henry Emrich, recalled, was subjected to an hour's examination, in which was elicited that the Clarendon Hall Conference Committee of 1886 went out of official existence immediately after election, though it continued to meet occasionally with the view of getting up a jollification over the big vote for George.

Mr. Emrich admitted that there was a re-

George.

Mr. Emrich admitted that there was a re-enrolment of the supporters of Henry George in January last, but said that it was only of that portion of the George voters who were members of the labor organizations.

GIANTS IN TROUBLE

Disgraceful Scenes on the Field at New Orleans.

No Games Played in the Crescent City for Four Days.

Three of the Nine Drink too Much Bear-Kelly, Distinguishes Himself by Charac Kicking-Capt. Ward Sends His Wife from the Grounds-The California

May be Abandoned After All This. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—There has be game at Sportsman's Park the past three days, and there will be none this afterno and there is a possibility that the game or Sunday may go by default. This state of affairs is due not to the New Orleans Club or New Orleans management but to the unbecoming and ungentlemanly actions of the New Yorkers on the field and before the game on Monday. The conduct of some of them was re hensible, and yesterday when Capt. Ward went to Secretary Kaufman on business connected with the game that was advertised to be played Mr. Kauf positively refused to allow the New Yorks to play on the grounds unless there was a written agreement that the men would go on the field sober. Mr. Kaufrstan's action endorsed by members of the Board of Di-the field sober. Mr. Kaufman's action was endorsed by members of the Board of Directors and even the temperance men in the visiting club conceded that what he had done was justified.

There are at least three men in the New Yorks who have been drinking freely ever since they arrived in the city, and who were not, of course, in condition to play ball.

Matters went along smoothly on Sanday, the presence of a large crowd restraining any unseemly exhibition, but there were only two or three hundred present on Monday and the players did not care. Several citizens who too had been drinking freely came out in the carriages with the New Yorks and entered the grounds. The outsiders were unruly, boisterous and noisy, and openly used obscene language, though there were ladies present in the stockholders' stand. Kaufman remonstrated with them, but they paid no attention to him, and he called on a officer to reject them from the grounds.

When the officer attempted to arrest the men, Kelly jumped into the stand and tried to prevent the arrest, claiming the man was a friend of his. No attention, however, was paid to Kelly.

During the entire game the unseemly whibition was kept up and oaths came thick and fast from the grand stand. At one time Kelly clambered into the stand and drant beer with his friends, while the rest of the mine had already taken positions in the field.

It was probably the beer that caused so much kicking. The umpire was approached, and attempts made to bulldoze him. Capt. Ward, Keefe, Tiernan, Richardson, and ons or two others were aware of the drunkenness of their associates, and Capt. Ward during the game took his wife from the grounds and, placing her in a carriage, sent her to the St. Charles Hotel because of the disgraceful exhibition of some of the spectators and players.

It is now not unlikely that the New York combination will be broken up in New Orleans without proceeding further on the California trip, since the non-drinking members of the combination do not care to travel with lushers.
